3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

a. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend Section II of the Fee Schedule to assess Professionals an Options Surcharge for transactions in RUT, MNX, MNX, MDX, and BKX.

The Exchange believes that these surcharges will assist the Exchange in remaining competitive in these options. The Exchange also proposes to amend Section III of the Fee Schedule to specify that the following options: PHLX Semiconductor Sector M (SOX, PHLX Housing Sector, HGX, and PHLX Oil Service Sector, (OSX, OSX, PHLX Housing Sector, Tansaction Charge even though these options will no longer be Singly Listed Options Transaction Charge even though these options will no longer be Singly Listed. These above-referenced options are proprietary indexes. These options will be listed on the NASDAQ Options Market LLC ("NOM") commencing on April 2, 2012. The Exchange seeks to continue to recoup fees associated with maintaining these proprietary indexes. The Exchange is also proposing to amend the title of the Fee Schedule to more specifically describe the document.

Section II Amendments

The Exchange currently assesses an Options Surcharge for transactions in RUT, MNX and NDX of $.15 per contract for Market Makers, <sup>9</sup> Broker-Dealers and Firms. <sup>10</sup> The Exchange also currently assesses an Options Surcharge for transactions in BKX of $.10 per contract for Market Makers, Broker-Dealers and Firms. <sup>11</sup> The Exchange is proposing to assess Professionals an Options Surcharge for transactions in RUT, MNX and NDX of $.15 per contract and an Options Surcharge for transactions in BKX of $.10 per contract. Customers will continue not to be assessed an Options Surcharge in RUT, MNX, NDX and BKX.

Section III Amendments

Currently, SOX, HGX and OSX are Singly Listed Options subject to the following fees in Section III of the Fee Schedule:

Customer	Professional	Market Maker	Firm	Broker- Dealer

SR-Phlx-2012-35 Page 6 of 24

On April 2, 2012, NOM will list SOX, HGX and OSX and therefore these options will become Multiply Listed. The Exchange proposes to continue to assess SOX, HGX and OSX the Singly Listed Options Transaction Charges in Section III by specifying that these index options will be subject to Section III fees, even though they will no longer be Singly Listed. The Exchange also proposes to indicate in Section II of the Fee Schedule that SOX, HGX and OSX would be subject to the fees in Section III.

Other Amendments

The Exchange is also proposing to amend the title of the "Fee Schedule" to "Pricing Schedule" to more specifically describe this document.

b. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal to amend its Fee Schedule is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act<sup>12</sup> in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4) of the Act<sup>13</sup> in particular, in that it is an equitable allocation of reasonable fees and other charges among Exchange members and other persons using its facilities.

The Exchange's proposal to assess Professionals a $.15 per contract Options

Surcharge for transactions in RUT, MNX and NDX and a $.10 per contract Options

Surcharge for transactions in BKX is reasonable because Professionals would be assessed

a fee that is less favorable than a Customer but equivalent to all other market participants because it has been established that Professionals have access to more information than a Customer. It can be argued that Professionals have the same technological and informational advantages as broker-dealers trading for their own account. The Exchange believes that Professionals, who are considered sophisticated algorithmic traders, utilize the advantaged Customer pricing they receive to effectively compete with Market Makers and Broker-Dealers<sup>14</sup> without the obligations of either. Also, the Exchange believes that unlike Customers, Professionals are able to shoulder the burden of fees as effectively as other market participants.

The Exchange's proposal to assess Professionals a $.15 per contract Options

Surcharge for transactions in RUT, MNX and NDX and a $.10 per contract Options

Surcharge for transactions in BKX is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because all market participants, except for Customers, would be uniformly assessed the Options

Surcharge fees for RUT, MNX, NDX and BKX, respectively. A lower Customer fee benefits all market participants by incentivizing market participants to transact a greater number of Customer orders, which results in increased liquidity. Additionally, today

Professionals are assessed a higher fee as compared to Customers in both Penny Pilot

Options 15 and non-Penny Pilot Options. 16

&lt;sup>14</sup> Broker-dealers pay registration and membership fees in self-regulatory organizations ("SRO") and incur costs to comply and assure that their associated persons comply with the Act and SRO rules.

&lt;sup>15</sup> The Penny Pilot was established in January 2007; and in October 2009, it was expanded and extended through June 30, 2012. See Securities Exchange Act Release Nos. 55153 (January 23, 2007), 72 FR 4553 (January 31, 2007) (SR-Phlx-2006-74) (notice of filing and approval order establishing Penny Pilot); 60873 (October 23, 2009), 74 FR 56675 (November 2, 2009) (SR-Phlx-2009-91) (notice of filing and immediate effectiveness expanding and extending Penny Pilot); 60966 (November 9, 2009),

SR-Phlx-2012-35 Page 8 of 24

The Exchange's proposal to continue to assess SOX, HGX and OSX the fees in Section III for Singly Listed Options is reasonable because the Exchange is seeking to continue to recoup the operation and development costs associated with these proprietary indexes.<sup>17</sup>

The Exchange believes that its proposal to continue to assess SOX, HGX and OSX the fees in Section III for Singly Listed Options is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because all market participants would be assessed the Singly Listed Options Transaction Charges for transacting options on these indexes instead of the Options Transaction Charges in Section II. <sup>18</sup> Specifically, all market participants would See also Exchange Rule 1034.

be assessed the higher fees in Section III, as compared to the fees in Section II, with the exception of a Broker-Dealer electronically transacting options on these indexes. <sup>19</sup> The Exchange has previously stated that it incurs higher costs for Singly Listed Options as compared to Multiply Listed Options. <sup>20</sup> The Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE") noted in a comment letter dated June 21, 2010 that CBOE relies upon fees to, among other things, generate returns on its investments for its own popular proprietary products (such as The CBOE Volatility Index® ("VIX®") Options). <sup>21</sup> In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed fees are reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the fees are consistent with price differentiation that exists today at all option exchanges. For example, CBOE assesses different rates for certain proprietary indexes as compared to other index products transacted at CBOE. VIX options and The S&P 500® Index options ("SPXSM") are assessed different fees than other indexes. <sup>22</sup>

The Exchange believes that its proposal to rename the "Fee Schedule" as the "Pricing Schedule" is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the Exchange believes that the changing the title to "Pricing Schedule" more specifically

describes the fees, rebates and other charges reflected in the document termed "Fee Schedule."

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market, comprised of nine exchanges, in which market participants can easily and readily direct order flow to competing venues if they deem fee levels at a particular venue to be excessive.

Accordingly, the fees that are assessed by the Exchange must remain competitive with fees charged by other venues and therefore must continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to those members that opt to direct orders to the Exchange rather than competing venues.

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

Options Transaction Charges for transacting options on these indexes instead of the Options Transaction Charges in Section II. <sup>18</sup> Specifically, all market participants would be assessed the higher fees in Section III, as compared to the fees in Section II, with the exception of a Broker-Dealer electronically transacting options on these indexes. <sup>19</sup> The Exchange has previously stated that it incurs higher costs for Singly Listed Options as compared to Multiply Listed Options. <sup>20</sup> The Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE") noted in a comment letter dated June 21, 2010 that CBOE relies upon fees to, among other things, generate returns on its investments for its own popular proprietary products (such as The CBOE Volatility Index® ("VIX®") Options). <sup>21</sup> In addition, the Exchange believes that the proposed fees are reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the fees are consistent with price differentiation that exists today at all option exchanges. For example, CBOE assesses different rates for certain proprietary indexes as compared to other index products transacted at CBOE.

VIX options and The S&P  $500^{$}$  Index options ("SPXSM,") are assessed different fees than other indexes. <sup>22</sup>

The Exchange believes that its proposal to rename the "Fee Schedule" as the "Pricing Schedule" is reasonable, equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because the Exchange believes that the changing the title to "Pricing Schedule" more specifically describes the fees, rebates and other charges reflected in the document termed "Fee Schedule."

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market, comprised of nine exchanges, in which market participants can easily and readily direct order flow to competing venues if they deem fee levels at a particular venue to be excessive.

Accordingly, the fees that are assessed by the Exchange must remain competitive with fees charged by other venues and therefore must continue to be reasonable and equitably allocated to those members that opt to direct orders to the Exchange rather than competing venues.
